exceptionally beautiful in the heart of the Garden District

In the heart of the Garden District, the Hampton Inn is on the St. Charles Streetcar Line and only three miles from the French Quarter. The hotel combines the convenience of modern facilities with the unique elegance of historic New Orleans.

Our spacious rooms and suites are designed to offer our guests a comfortable stay. Many feature a spectacular view of historic St. Charles Avenue.

Our elegant library is perfect for small meetings. Our business center will help you keep up with office details during your stay.

Take a walk down world-famous St. Charles Avenue. Catch the streetcar outside our door to Downtown New Orleans, the French Quarter, Audubon Zoo, Tulane University and Loyola University. In one of the country's great historical districts, the hotel is central to the metropolitan area attractions.

Enjoy the attentive, personal service of a European boutique hotel, as well as the modern comforts and conveniences that have made Hampton Inn one of the most preferred brands in the industry.

The hotel is designed to blend with its historic surroundings. Our spacious lobby, where our daily complimentary breakfast buffet and evening tea & cheese reception are served, is elegantly decorated with superior furnishings. A charming New Orleans-style courtyard and covered patio surround our outdoor lap pool.

Expect the exceptional at Hampton Inn Garden District. Our goal is to make your vacation, meeting, reunion, reception, or convention a memorable part of your visit to New Orleans. Give us a call. We would love to show you more.
